

SYNOPSIS

Big Alma

Big Alma

She was one man's muse. For others, this musician and composer was a sex-obsessed monster, and for some she was both. The painter Gustav Klimt secretly kissed her when she was just seventeen. She had a love affair with the composer Alexander von Zemlinsky only to end up marrying the considerably older Gustav Mahler. During her marriage to Mahler she had an affair with the Walter Gropius, who she married after the death of Mahler, and a passionate fling with the painter Oskar Kokoschka. After her divorce, she married the writer Franz Werfel. The film shows the turbulent life of Alma incorporating interviews with contemporaries, experts and archive material. In the center of it all stands the myth and profane reality of a legendary «femme fatale».
