

SYNOPSIS

It's a Kind of Magic - Christmas in Innsbruck

Magische Weihnachten in Innsbruck

Christmas in the west of Austria is a winter dream, a romantic fairytale between the snow-covered mountains. Innsbruck celebrates Christmas with a lot of specialties like the traditional arrival-procession of Santa Claus which starts in the romantic city part St. Nikolaus, the magnificently decorated, medieval old town with its Christmas fair. However, there are many other Christmas miracles like the special, hand-made candles, the manufactured bells of the bell foundry or a holy mass which is held early in the morning.

The ceremonies continue until the 6th of January. Up to then one could get a lot of impressions of Christmas in Innsbruck, also some which are apparently hidden. Let yourself dive into the unique magic of Christmas.

Year: 2013

Run-Time: 1 x 52 min.

Directed by Anita Lackenberger

Written by Anita Lackenberger

Produced by Produktion West

Available worldwide

Languages: German (ORIGINAL) , English (VOICE-OVER) , Italian (VOICE-OVER)

Format: 16:9

HD UT

» SCREEN ONLINE