

SYNOPSIS

The Murderer's Muse

Die Muse des Mörders

Madeleine Montana is under the deluded impression that she is still a bestselling author. The blunt cynic points her sharp tongue towards everyone and anyone - even with her own son. But when a serial killer spreads fear and terror across Vienna, it soon becomes obvious that the crimes were directly inspired by Madeleine's novels' storylines. The former bestselling author is horrified and contacts the police. And she is quickly reminded how much she loves being in the spotlight. Inspector Bäumer and his assistant, Flo, fear there might be more brutal murders to come.
