

SYNOPSIS

How to Steal a Kiss

Alles Schwindel

The Kiss has gone. It's been stolen! For Leopold, the owner of the world-famous Klimt painting, it's the best and only good piece of news he's had in years. He isn't allowed to sell the Klimt, but with the insurance money he can finally pay off his debts. However, he hasn't reckoned with Isabella. She knows that the stolen Klimt is a fake and is holding Leopold, of all people, responsible for finding it again before the whole swindle is exposed - a refreshing comedy of errors with TV stars such as Ursula Strauss, Benno Fürmann, Udo Samel and many more.
