

SYNOPSIS

Love Is a Dream

Die Liebe ein Traum

Anna and Max are a dream couple on lay-away. It was love at first sight when they first met as students, but the relationship was doomed by incompatible expectations. Anna wants to be free, while Max is looking for his one true love. Anna loves chaos, but Max needs order. While their best friends Tillmann and Clarissa fall in love, get married, have kids and get divorced, Max and Anna, who never stopped loving each other, cross paths every couple of years. But the timing is never quite right. And then Max gets an invitation to Anna's wedding with Charles in Venice.

An invitation he decides to accept. Anna, however, has no idea that Max is planning to come ...
