

SYNOPSIS

Concert for Europe 2007

Konzert für Europa 2007

The Concert for Europe, having happened for the fourth time in spring 2007, is Europe's greatest classical music open air. Combining world famous classical music played by the renowned Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra with the magnificent scenery of the Schönbrunn Palace gardens, the Concert for Europe annually enchants up to 140.000 visitors on site. - Conductors like Bobby McFerrin, Zubin Mehta, Plácido Domingo and Valéry Gergiev, as well as the palace garden's unique imperial ambiance, contributed to the fact that the "Concert for Europe" in just four years has taken a well deserved place at the top of the world's classical open airs.

Program:

Pyotr Illyich Tchaikovsky: March from «The Nutcracker»; Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy from «The Nutcracker»; The Arabian Dance from «The Nutcracker»; The Chinese Dance from «The Nutcracker»; The Mirliton Dance from «The Nutcracker»; Russian Dance Trepak from «The Nutcracker»; Scene (Act 2) from «Swan Lake»; Pas de deux (Act 2) from «Swan Lake»; Final scene (Act 4) from «Swan Lake»;
Igor Strawinsky: Le Sacre du Printemps - 2nd part

Encores:

Aram Khachaturian: Sabre Dance;
Johann Strauss: Viennese Spirit - Wiener Blut;
Joseph Strauss: Ohne Sorgen!

Orchestra: Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra

Conducted by Valery Gergiev

Year: 2007

Run-Time: 1 x 75 min.

A co-production of ORF and Hey-U Entertainment

Languages: No linguistic content (ORIGINAL) , German (TEXT CONTENT)

CONTENT SALES INTERNATIONAL

SYNOPSIS

Format: 16:9

» SCREEN ONLINE

