

SYNOPSIS

Olympic Fever in Rio

Brasilien - Olympische Spiele in Krisenzeiten

More than 15,000 athletes and tens of thousands of coaches, support staff and spectators are expected to travel to the Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro this August. Following the controversial hosting of the football World Cup two years ago, Brazil is on the verge of its next great sporting event, yet Brazil's economy is mired in crisis, the infrastructure is disastrous, and the security situation due to the still enormous inequality is challenging. This World Journal visits the city to find out more, taking in diverse areas from Copacabana to Sugarloaf Mountain, from Rio's chic beach district of Ipanema with its hip cafes and restaurants, where even a simple evening meal can cost EUR100, to the favelas in the hills in the north of the city, the rough slums of Brazil.

Year: 2016

Run-Time: 1 x 30 min.

Directed by Julieta Rudich and Christa Hofmann

ORF

Available worldwide

Languages: German (ORIGINAL)

Format: 16:9

HD

» SCREEN ONLINE