

SYNOPSIS

Art City London

Art City London

Buckingham Palace, Big Ben, Piccadilly, Tower Bridge... Visitors to London almost always limit themselves to the highlights found in travel guides. At the same time, the London art scene is richer and more colourful than in almost any other city in the world. The documentary explores this scene, taking the viewers to exciting places that can't be found in most travel guides. There are interviews with famous artists like Antony Gormley, Jason Martin and Michael Craig- Martin; we see them at work and get to know a little bit about their lives. As well as visiting well known exhibition spaces, art schools, private collections and locations like the Tate Modern and Tate Britain, the documentary shows spectacular aerial shots of major London sites from unusual perspectives.

Year: 2008

Run-Time: 1 x 52 min.

Directed by Peter Vogel

A co-production of Vogel AV and ORF/3sat

Available worldwide

Languages: German (ORIGINAL) , English (DUBBED)

Format: 16:9 , 16:9

» SCREEN ONLINE