Bridging Minds

Die Brücke der Verständigung

In spite of many obstructions and misunderstandings on both sides, the film-team, led by producer Carl Szokoll and director Helmut Käutner, succeeded to finish "The Last Bridge" (Die letzte Brücke) and won the "Prix International" at the Festival in Cannes 1954. "Bridging Minds" is a painstakingly researched film-study containing detailed scenic excerpts from the film and portrays the surviving participants who evoke their memories of the unique, almost revolutionary production.
