

SYNOPSIS

Shanghai - The Port of Last Resort

Zuflucht in Shanghai

In the years 1938-1941 nearly 20,000 European Jewish refugees fled to Shanghai, a free port that did not require papers for entry. Shanghai became the «last resort» to find a safe haven from the Nazis. This lost world and the story of survival is revealed through uncommon views of Chinese life and the memories of four survivors as well as through a collage of rare and remarkable film footage.

Year: 2007

Run-Time: 1 x 75 min.

Directed by Joan Grossman & Paul Rosdy

A co-production of Pinball Films, New York/Vienna and Extrafilm, Vienna

Available worldwide

Languages: German (ORIGINAL) , English (DUBBED)

Format: 16:9 , 16:9

» SCREEN ONLINE