Archduke Johann - Visionary and Philanthropist

Erzherzog Johann - Visionär und Menschenfreund

He was a monarch whose thinking was future-oriented and ahead of its time and which had an inspirational influence on the whole of Europe. However, two centuries lie between his actions and the world of today; centuries in which the world has changed more and faster than in the preceding ones. What then of Archduke Johann's innovations can still endure today? This documentary shows a portrait of a man whose deeds had a decisive effect on the lives of many people and served as a basis for many subsequent generations.
