

SYNOPSIS

Collio - Secret Italy

Collio - Italiens Hügel der Genüsse

Since the days of the Roman Empire, Collio has been more than just a fertile wine growing region. The Habsburgs valued these hillsides for the fruit they provided. This region in north eastern Italy has a special micro climate and a long cultural history, with traces of Romans and Lombards everywhere. In the two World Wars, the region became a battleground, eventually being divided by the Iron Curtain.
