

SYNOPSIS

Jesus was a Surfer

Jesus war ein Surfer

The Brazilian Roman Catholic Church has been unable to avoid a recent trend sweeping across Latin America, which has seen a rise in the popularity of evangelical groups at the expense of the established churches. The so-called «Snowball Church» recruits believers from among former drug addicts who have turned to surfing, using slogans such as «Jesus was a surfer». This report from Klaus Ther seeks to explain why Brazilians are turning away from the Catholic Church and embracing evangelical groups.
