

SYNOPSIS

Life for the Poor - Father George

Ein Leben für die Armen - Pater Georg Sporschill

The Jesuit priest Georg Sporschill has devoted his life to helping the weakest members of society - the homeless, drug addicts and street children. From the beginnings of his social work he has created, with great commitment and dedication, places of refuge for those who have nowhere left to turn. This documentary shows Father Georg Sporschill's tireless work in the service of society and portrays a man who, in accordance with his principles, looks after the weakest, in order to find the strength in them.
